Denis Letourneau
Adjudicator - Strings

Denis Letourneau has a BMus. in violin performance from the U of A with post-graduate studies at the Banff Center over several summers. He was the Concertmaster for the Okanagan Symphony Orchestra for 39 years and since retiring has remaining employed by the OSO on an occasional basis. Mr. Letourneau has recently taken up classical singing as a new project. Denis used to sing in his late teens with the Edmonton Opera Chorus and in his father's choirs as he was the main voice instructor at the time. Now Mr. Letourneau has wonderful opportunities to sing and play the violin, not at the same time, with Jay LaFlamme in a number of retirement facilities and other venues throughout the Okanagan. One of his other loves is jazz violin and to that end he has been able to perform on many jazz concerts with several different ensembles over the years. Lastly, Mr. Letourneau is currently working up a beautiful classical concert program for violin and piano with the very fine pianist, Graham Vink, and they are excitedly looking forward to a small performance tour sometime this summer.
