Dr. Sandra-Joy Friesen
Adjudicator, Piano

Sandra-Joy Friesen is a pianist with a broad range of repertoire and musical interests, from traditional to contemporary, to interpretation of pictorial scores and interdisciplinary improvisation. She has performed as a soloist and chamber musician throughout Canada, the United States, and several countries in South America and Europe. With a special sensitivity in art song collaboration, Sandra-Joy has studied and performed this vast repertoire for more than three decades, including residencies at The Banff Centre (Alberta) and the Franz-Schubert-Institute (Austria). She holds degrees from the University of British Columbia (Master and Bachelor of Music) and Canadian Mennonite University (Bachelor of Church Music). A music educator since 1992, Sandra-Joy investigates the developments in piano techniques, styles and aesthetics from the 20th-21st centuries and has dedicated a large part of her career to lectures, presentations, workshops and concerts of contemporary music. After 16 years of professional work in BC, Sandra-Joy completed the Doctor of Music degree as a scholar of the Kule Institute for Advanced Studies at the University of Alberta. She was Visiting Assistant Professor of Piano in the Department of Music at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota from 2013-2015. She now teaches from her Music Studio in NW Calgary and continues to perform a full spectrum of repertoire.
